

How Active Must I Be In The Redmond Club?

Some members are more active than others. All members are encouraged to attend meetings and participate as they may in community service and fund raising projects.

What are Kiwanis Meetings Like?

Club meetings offer an atmosphere of fun, learning and fellowship! Weekly meetings are held every Friday morning at 7:00 am at the Family Pancake House located at 17621 Redmond Way.

- Friday meetings usually include:
- optional made-to-order breakfast
 - Club reports on current activities
 - Informative program providing an opportunity to learn about a variety of community topics in the areas of business, education, human interest, and social services - just to name a few.

How Are Funds Raised and Used for Service Projects?

- 100% of the funds raised within the local community are returned back to the community in support of service projects and sponsorship of youth oriented activities.

What is Kiwanis?

At the local level, Kiwanis clubs sponsor projects developed to improve children's lives and provide leadership opportunities in community service for youth. For example, the Redmond High School Kiwanis Key Club is sponsored by the Redmond Kiwanis Club.

At the Pacific Northwest District level, Kiwanis supports:

- Kiwanis Children's Cancer Program in Seattle,
